

FREE TURNBACK CLINIC

HOSTED BY: CENTRAL OREGON CUTTING HORSE ASSOC.

If you want to:

Learn more about cutting and have fun with your horse

OR

Just get your horse out and about some cattle,

Then join us at the COCHA Cutting practice:

When: Saturday, February 18 Starting at 9 A.M.

Where: Norton's Arena East of Madras on Grizzly Rd.

What: Bring your broke horse (or just yourself if you just want to watch), dress warmly (indoors but still winter) and bring some lunch if you think you'll stay till the end. Learn how to be a part of the 4 person team helping the cutters work their horses.

Schedule:

9 A.M.—Overview of duties of turnback and herd holder helpers

10 A.M.—Cutting Practice for club members starts with YOU as the helpers, coached by a professional cutting horse trainer.

Central Oregon Cutting Horse Association will waive club dues for this one time FREE clinic, but you must sign a liability release form in order to participate in the clinic. COCHA wants to encourage riders to learn about cutting and how you can continue to enjoy the sport and participate by learning how to turn back without the cost of a cutting horse. (Our ultimate goal of course is to get YOU hooked on cutting too.)

For further information about COCHA go to COCHAcutting.com. Please feel free to call any of the board members listed in the website for more information. Liability and membership forms are available online. We look forward to your participation.
