Please join us for a two day clinic with Russ Miller from St. Anthony, Idaho. Russ is a long time trainer, aged event and weekend horse champion. He is a great communicator and loves to help Non Pros and amateurs with their horses. This clinic will include a focus on both weekend and aged event horses. It will be held indoors at the Norton's Madras facility. Depending on the number of aged event horses from our registrants we will change up the arena configuration to work round or flat. Please join us for this two day event.
